

Native Japanese Medical Writer at ProScribe — can be located in UK, USA, or Sydney, Australia

About ProScribe and the Envision Pharma Group

We are a global leader in medical communications, with an international portfolio of pharmaceutical and biotechnology company clients, whom we support from our offices in Australia, Japan, the UK and the US. We have an enviable reputation in our field and a heritage founded on continual innovation and leadership in best practice.

We provide a unique and comprehensive blend of service offerings, including:

- Strategic publication planning
- Tactical publication plan implementation
- Medical communications services
- Regulatory writing services
- Consultancy services
- Market Access solutions
- Complementary technology platforms: including Datavision, the industry-leading publications planning software

Position Summary

ProScribe is seeking to employ an experienced medical writer who can write proficiently in both Japanese (native-level and formal business-level) and English. This position can be based anywhere in the UK, in the US, or in Sydney, Australia.

The position involves the writing of medical publications (manuscripts, posters, slide kits), regulatory documents (protocols, clinical study reports, CTD submissions, literature-based submissions, risk management plans) and other evidence-based educational materials.

Candidates must have a strong scientific/medical background, at least 2 years' medical writing expertise in regulatory writing, medical communications or medical publications. In addition, the ideal candidate will have great organisational skills, strong attention to detail and an ability to WOW clients with their dedication to customer service. Previous experience working as a medical/regulatory writer within the pharmaceutical or medical communication industries is essential.

What is it like working for ProScribe?

ProScribe is committed to developing and supporting team members, enabling them to excel in their roles, and to maintaining a culture that encourages development, as well as recognising and rewarding achievements. We are a dynamic and rewarding company to work for, offering excellent benefits and a friendly, supportive and vibrant work environment.
